SUMMER 2020 SCHEDULE

June 29–July 3, Journey Around the World

$375; Jump into fascinating folktales from both ancient and modern world cultures! Use fundamentals of character work, voice, and movement to explore tales of powerful and cunning Shapeshifters.

July 6–10, Acting Funny

$375; Learn a variety of techniques from theater and improv to bring vibrant, hilarious characters to the stage!

July 13–17, Creating Characters

$375; Explore diverse characters from both comedic and dramatic stories, and discover how each actor's choices can produce distinct and colorful characters.

July 20–24, Brave the Bard

$375; Spend your summer with Shakespeare! Step into a world of magic, mayhem, and mistaken identity while learning to master the Bard's language. Students will perform scenes of raucous comedy and high drama from some of Shakespeare's most enduring plays.

July 27–31, Modern Mythmaking

$375; Stories like Hansel & Gretel and Little Red Riding Hood were written at a time when the woods were dangerous places, and hungry wolves roamed into towns searching for food. What problems and dangers do youth face today, and how might a 2020 tale tackle them in an innovative, stereotype-busting way? Students take on the roles of playwrights, actors, and designers and work together to imagine and create a new myth for today's world.
