8th Annual Cambridge Watershed Bike Tour

Cycle to the Source

Saturday
October 2, 2021
8:30 am - 4 pm

What is it? Cycle to the Source is an athletic and interactive tour of the Cambridge watershed. You will see the water move through the landscape and learn how we monitor and protect water quality to get the best possible water to your tap.

Where is it? The tour will take cyclists from the purification facility at 250 Fresh Pond Parkway in Cambridge, MA, to the watershed lands and reservoirs in Lincoln, Lexington, Weston, and Waltham. The total distance is about 33 miles. Please schedule for a full day of cycling!

How do I register? Advanced registration is required for all tour participants. To register, visit www.tinyurl.com/CycleToTheSource2021
Contact Anna Van Dreser at (617) 349-7712 or at avandreser@cambridgema.gov before registration closes on September 29th with any quesions.

Rain date is Sunday, October 3rd. The tour is free and open to the public.
