Artist Isaura Oliveira leads a beautiful performance with students performers in training and guest artists involving live music, dance, and audience interaction in the spirit of a special Brazilian celebration called “Mesa de Caboclo” and her street flow “Power of Skirts.” Audience will be invited to participate in gentle movement and informal conversations including health trivia as part of the performance.

The City is partnering with local artists to advance community and social resilience, healthy eating, active living, and mental health in Cambridge.

This event is funded through the Massachusetts Community Health & Healthy Aging Funds and supported by Cambridge Arts and the Cambridge Dance Complex.
