

Join the Cambridge Women's Commission and the Cambridge-El Salvador Sister City Project for an evening of revolutionary women.

Women in Resistance/Mujeres en La Resistencia

From the past to the present

Diana Sierra Becerra

Featured speaker

Diana Sierra Becerra

Historian, activist, community organizer, and professor at UMass Amherst will inspire with the stories of Salvadoran women who fought for justice.

Joined by Irma Flores, Salvadoran Community Organizer &
Gabriela Cartagena, Salvadoran Housing Rights Activist

Friday, May 5, 2023, 6:30-8:30

Cambridge Senior Center - 806 Mass Ave. Central Square

Light refreshments served. Interpretation into Spanish will be provided.

Register Here for in person attendance

Register here for zoom

The event will be recorded. For more information, email cambridgeelsalvador@gmail.com

Co-sponsors: (partial list) Mass Peace Action with Arlington Teosinte Sister City, Cambridge Human Rights Commission, Centro Presente, Office of Cambridge Mayor Sumbul Siddiqui, Cambridge Women's Center, CISPES, Fuerza Latina, Mass Network to Support Democracy in El Salvador, Somerville Family Learning Collaborative, YWCA Cambridge